Facebook Ads always show in the most engaging way possible

Ads shown to people who are connected to your business display content in the following manner.

Ads shown to people who aren't connected to your business, they're labeled "Suggested Post".

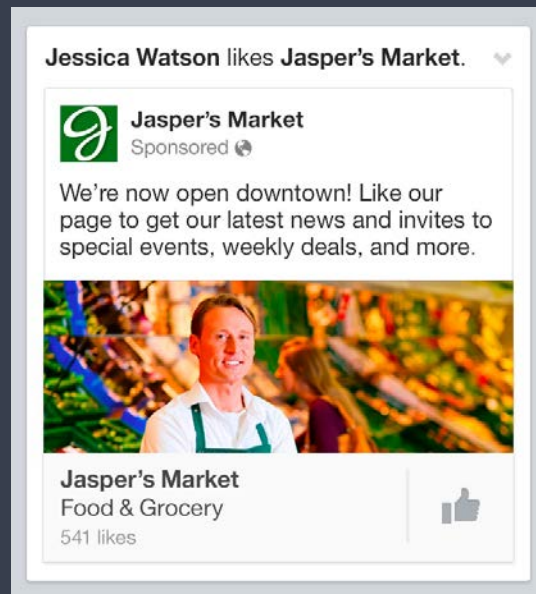

Ads shown to people who aren't connected to your business but who have friends who are connected will show social information.

Types of social information

There are different types of social information that can be surfaced to people whose friends have connected with your business.

Social information when a friend is connected with your Page

Social information when a friend liked a post from your Page
(e.g. “Jessica Watson likes this”)

Social information when a friend commented on a post from your Page
(e.g. “Jessica Watson commented on this”)

Social information when a friend shared a post from your Page
